Is Your Child Born in 2023?

If your child was born in 2023 and is not currently enrolled in a Three-Year-Old program at Wind & Tide, you may join the waitlist now through your Parent Portal.

- Four-Year-Old Preschool: All locations

Students currently enrolled in our Three-Year-Old classes receive priority for Four-Year-Old placements. Beginning in March 2027, we will contact families on the waitlist about available spaces in Four-Year-Old classes for September 2027.

Have you considered Junior Kindergarten for your child?

Junior Kindergarten runs Mondays to Fridays for 2.5 hours or 6 hours (depending on the location). With the Child Care Fee Reduction Initiative (CCFRI), Junior Kindergarten has become more affordable for families. The additional class time allows for expanded learning. Additional Registration Info

Wind & Tide classes at popular locations often fill quickly. Follow these helpful tips!

- Can I apply for more than one class or location?

Applying for multiple locations and class times can increase your chances of securing a placement. When you apply for more than one class, you can list each class based on your preference (first choice is highest, second choice is high, etc.). If your first choice is full, you can accept a placement and remain on the waitlist for your other more preferred classes.

- My child still naps? How do I make the afternoon class work?

We understand that many families can be apprehensive about registering for afternoon classes primarily due to concerns about their child's naptime. Many children stop having naps between 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 years of age, which is why come September, many families actually find that the afternoon class time works well for them. If a child is napping sporadically, an afternoon class can keep them occupied and engaged on days they are not napping and can help with more consistent naps on those days they aren't attending preschool. It also gives families more time to get ready and out the door before school, which can lead to a calmer class environment.

If you register your child in an afternoon class, they will still remain on any waitlists you have selected (ex: morning classes), and will be offered a transfer should a space become available.

- How do I pay?

There are no fees to apply or to join a waitlist. Payment Forms and fees will be requested after your child has been placed in a class. The fee schedule can be found in the Parent Portal by selecting Apply For A Program and looking up the class.

- When do I apply for Development Programs and Childcare?

Registration for Development Programs opens on May 1. Applications for Childcare are accepted year-round.
