

After-School Development Programs | Teaching Assistants

South Surrey & White Rock Area

If you are looking for a part-time afterschool position, working in a fun and engaging program designed for school age children, then we have an opportunity for YOU!

Wind & Tide is currently accepting applications for several part-time Teacher Assistants positions available in our signature Development Programs starting September 2022:

- Part-time Development Program Teaching Assistants | South Surrey & White Rock Area
- Weekday Afternoons | 1-2 days/week | 3:15-5:15PM or 3:30-5:30PM

Below are brief descriptions of our Development Programs with Assistant positions available:

Ready to Read Programs (2 days/week)

This is a dynamic and fun Literacy Program for children in Kindergarten through to Grade 2. Ready to Read uses a creative story-telling approach taking students through a magical fair, where consonants and vowels are characters that work together to form words. Components of this program include games, songs, and creative writing.

Toastminors Programs (1 day/week)

This is a unique public speaking program designed for students in Grades 1-4. This high-energy program teaches students how to confidently embrace the art of public speaking by teaching the skills necessary to listen and organize information, and master their own speaking style.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for responsible individuals who are full of enthusiasm and love for school-age children. The successful applicant should be reliable, confident and be able to receive direction and give appropriate guidance to the children in their care.

Qualifications and Required Training:

- Basic fluency in English
- Excellent communication skills; written and oral
- Criminal Record Check Clearance
- Must be 16 years of age or older
- Covid-19 Vaccination required
